Real Estate Disclosure Summary Chart is designed to provide REALTORS® and their clients with an easy-to-use reference guide for determining the applicability of the state and federal laws to real estate transactions most commonly handled by real estate licensees.

Real Estate Disclosure Summary Chart provides a disclosure "trigger" as well as a brief summary of the disclosure requirement, but does not cover all disclosures required by law. Some of the disclosures addressed in this chart, though generally applicable to a particular type of transaction, may be subject to exceptions which, unless otherwise noted, are not addressed in this publication. More detailed information regarding disclosure and other legal topics is available to C.A.R. members on C.A.R. Online at www.car.org.

Certain transactions may be subject to additional disclosure requirements. For additional information on lease and rental transactions, please refer to legal memorandum, Real Estate Disclosure Chart for Lease and Rental Transactions. For additional disclosure requirements when selling a property in a common interest development, please refer to legal memorandum, Disclosure Obligations When Selling Property in a Condominium or Other Common Interest Development. For additional disclosure requirements involving homes in a new subdivision, please refer to legal memorandum, Disclosure Requirements for Newly-Built Homes in a Subdivision.

FHA/HUD Inspection Notice	Sale of residential real property of 1-4 units, including mobilehomes on a permanent foundation, which involve FHA loans or HUD-owned properties.	For all properties regardless of when they were built, the borrower must sign the notice entitled, "The Importance of a Home Inspection."  C.A.R. Form HID may be used for this purpose.	FHA Inspection Disclosure Form  HUD Mortgagee Letters 99-18, 99-32.
FIRPTA (Federal Withholding Tax) and California Withholding Tax	FIRPTA: All sales, including installment sales, exchanges, foreclosures, deeds in lieu of foreclosure and other transactions by a "foreign person" – See the legal memorandum for the exemptions.  CAL Withholding: Any "disposition of a California real property interest" (includes sales, exchanges, foreclosures, installment sales, and other types of transfers).	FIRPTA: Buyers must withhold 10% of the gross sales price and send it to the IRS. See the legal memorandum for all the details. If the seller is not a "foreign person," he or she may complete the affidavit of non-foreign status.  CALWithholding: Buyers must withhold 3 1/3 percent of the gross sales price on any sale of California real property interests, unless an exemption applies, and send it to the FTB. Subdivided Lands Law	Sale, leasing, or financing of new developments (condos, PUDs) or conversions consisting of 5 or more lots, parcels, or interests. However, a transfer of a single property to 5 or more unrelated people (unless exempt) may also trigger this law. There are exemptions too numerous to discuss in this chart.	The owner, subdivider, or agent, prior to the execution of the purchase contract or lease, must give the buyer/lessee a copy of the final public report (FPR), preliminary public report (PPR), or the conditional public report (CPR) issued by the DRE.  No offers may be solicited until the DRE has issued one of these three reports. If the DRE has issued a CPR or PPR, then offers may be solicited, but close of escrow is contingent upon issuance of the FPR.  Contracts entered into pursuant to a PPR may be rescinded by either party; contracts entered into pursuant to a CPR are contingent upon satisfaction of certain	Subdivided Lands Law  Subdivision Applicability Chart  Cal.
